

BIO

Revive the Rose are a Niagara born rock band with a classic sound for everybody. Since 2014, they have rocked their way through Southern Ontario and are ready to take on the world with powerful shows, a fresh sound, and their very own beer in 15 different bars!

Over the years, they have opened for huge rock acts such as The Glorious Sons, PUP, Monster Truck, The Trews, and Bush to name a few. Through these experiences, they have built a strong fanbase that are always excited to see their energetic show, and hear their songs that tell stories about love, life, and moving forward.

Not only have they opened for some of the most popular bands in the industry, their music has received significant recognition. Their songs have been featured on the airwaves on popular radio stations such as 102.1 The Edge, and 97.7 HTZ-FM, and during NHL games. Most notably, their song "Bar Down" has been featured as a warm-up track in the EA Sports video game NHL 2021.

What's next for this feel-good band? A growing fan-base, more parties, songs to learn and love, epic shows, and a brand-new album. For now, check out their debut self-titled album available on all streaming platforms, and try their "Bar Down Lager."

"The EP had me hooked instantly. The band is incredibly tight and the song writing showcases a sophisticated and mature approach that allows for each song to develop in a creative directions. Revive the Rose is a band to seriously watch out for this year!"

- Gerrod Harris (Canadian Beats)

"Really solid meat and potatoes rock, this is what an indie band can do!"

- Alan Cross (102.1 The Edge)
