

Splash'N Boots are a beloved Canadian children's music duo consisting of Nick Adams (Splash) and Taes Leavitt (Boots). With 20 years of experience, Splash'N Boots have become a household name, creating music and concert experiences that bring happiness and joy to children of all ages.

Their newest album, I am Love, follows their recent success with their second JUNO Award for "Heart Parade" in 2021 and a Canadian Folk Music Award in 2022. Splash'N Boots have created a global community dedicated to making every child feel seen, heard, and loved for exactly who they are.

With their hit TV show on Treehouse TV and Disney Jr. Canada, Splash'N Boots have appeared daily in over 8.5 million homes across Canada. They have also recently written and produced an episode for Sesame Street.

In addition to their own original music, Splash'N Boots have collaborated with a wide range of artists including Alice Cooper, Brett Kissel, Johnny Reid, Alan Doyle, Simon Ward of The Strumbellas, The Wiggles, and Sharon and Bram. Their music is enjoyed around the world, with millions of streams on Spotify, Apple Music, and Youtube.

Beyond their music, Splash'N Boots are committed to using their voice to raise awareness for important causes. They have supported and worked with organizations such as Sick Kids Hospital, Camp Ooch, Plus1, MusiCounts, Kids Up Front, and the Starlight Foundation. They are also the creators and stewards of a uniquely powerful pen pal program geared towards children with autism, called Lucas's Letters, which encourages children of all ages and abilities to connect through letter-writing.

Through their music, television appearances, and advocacy work, Splash'N Boots continue to spread joy and positivity to children and families around the world.
