Splash'N Boots

2 x JUNO Award Winner

Splash'N Boots are a beloved Canadian two time JUNO award winning children's music duo consisting of Nick Adams (Splash) and Taes Leavitt (Boots). With 20 years of experience, Splash'N Boots have become a household name, creating music and concert experiences that bring happiness and joy to children of all ages.

With their hit TV show on Treehouse TV and Disney Jr. Canada, musical collaborations with Alice Cooper, Brett Kissel, Alan Doyle, and The Wiggles, Splash'N Boots have reached the hearts of millions across Canada and abroad.

Beyond their music, Splash'N Boots are committed to using their voice to raise awareness for important causes. They have supported and worked with organizations such as Sick Kids Hospital, Camp Ooch, Plus1, MusiCounts, Kids Up Front, and the Starlight Foundation. They are also the creators and stewards of a uniquely powerful pen pal program geared towards children with autism, called Lucas's Letters, which encourages children of all ages and abilities to connect through letter-writing.

Through their music, television appearances, and advocacy work, Splash'N Boots continue to spread joy and positivity to children and families around the world.
