THT Short Bio

Charlottetown indie rock band Two Hours Traffic formed in 2002 at the University of Prince Edward Island. Over a 12-year span, the group toured extensively in Canada and around the world. Their discography features 4 full-length albums and 3 EPs. The band's second album "Little Jabs" was shortlisted for the 2008 Polaris Music Prize. Following their farewell concerts in 2013, the band reformed for a concert in 2018 and have been performing steadily ever since. The group is preparing to release new music in 2024.